Thinking Out Loud

H. M. L.

One piece of mince pie almost any stomach can digest. But two pieces will tax the majority of alimentary systems. It is too rich, housewives declare. Too many ingredients widely varying in food value makes the mince pie really a hodgepodge of good things. But one piece, ah, yes, most of us can relish one piece and get away with it, in time.

One piece of Rooseveltian mince pie and Uncle Sam is holding up his hand in the "halt" signal. "No more, please," says your uncle. Granting that this alphabetical pie had some ingredients of value to this nation in distress, it does not follow for a moment that we could digest another serving of the same.

There have been almost as great a variety of cooks as there are ingredients in that pie The cooks ranged from the deep red of Rex Tugwell, to the bright pink of Secretary Wallace, from the moderate conservatism of Secretary Roper to anti-bellum conservatism of Secretary Hull. From the Gentleman Farmer Morgenthau, pitchfork into the enormous job of the Treasury, to Idealist Harry Hopkins, spender-in-chief for relief, all shades of economic thought are represented in the cooks who have baked us this thirteen billion dollar mince pie.

And speaking of pie, in the political sense, let us not forget General Jim Farley. With spotless white apron covering that enormous paunch, and spotless white cap surmounting his crafty dome, he would be the very spit and image of the traditional dispenser of food. He is in fact, the big lusty of the pie dispensers of the Roosevelt administration. General Jim trading relief jobs for votes. General Jim giving 260,000 pieces of Federal pie to as many deserving Democrats. General Jim sending eleven army pilots to their death when he wrecked the air mail service and substituted army planes in order to teach the private airline companies to be mannerly. No, we cannot forget General Jim.

With this curious motley of cooks who have turned out over 200 alphabetical dishes in three years, no wonder this country yearns for a change. In order to be convinced we need a change, is is not necessary to accuse the President of Communist leaning, even though Rex Tugwell, one of his principal advisers makes no bones of his communistic faith. For we do not for a moment believe that President Roosevelt, patrician born and bred, and inheritor of one of the oldest fortunes in the United States, is a communist. It is not in the cards. In his leisure and social interims his associates are all of the old American aristocracy. For the common man, who digs and delves, for the little forgotten taxpayer, who walks humbly bearing on his back this enormous burden of debt, the President expresses a sympathy which he cannot feel. Because no man reared as the President has been, can feel the sympathy, that Abraham Lincoln did, for instance, for the men who must earn their bread by the sweat of their brow. For did he feel sympathy he would be more tender of the burden he piles on the little fellow's back. Sympathy needs more than words for true expression.

We need not go far afield to see what's wrong with the Roosevelt policies. Here in Nevada City we are feeling the heavy hand of the administration's clumsy and costly relief efforts. A city hall construction that drags on interminably, adding day by day to the tax burdens of this community. Street improvements begun and unfinished, projects here and there left up in the air. It is all very well to say that these projects were begun to provide work relief, and that only, but any "planned economy" that leaves the tax payers out on a limb in the cold, must eventually fail, and better now than four years later.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Noyes moved into their cosy new home on Gold Flat this week. They were given a charivari and housewarming Monday evening by forty relatives and friends of the Gold Flat section, which proved quite a happy surprise. Several hours were spent in social converse after which dainty refreshments were served. Mr. Noyes is the son of Mrs. George M. Noyes of Gold Flat, and the young couple were married about three months ago.

What About The Price Of Gold ?

No less a political leader than Senator McAdoo started the story that if Landon were elected President he would cut the price of gold.

CONGRESSMAN

At a rally and dinner of the Republicans of Nevada County in Nevada City last Friday night Congressman Harry L. Englebright, Republican whip in the House of Representatives, and the probably the next Republican Speaker of the House, spiked this story by quoting from Landon's telegram to the Republican National Convention.

"The answer to the question that has been raised," said Englebright "whether Landon would reduce the price of gold below $35 an ounce, is obsolutely NO."

The Congressman then quoted Governor Landon. Regarding the sound money plank in the Republican platform, Governor Landon in his wire stated:

"The convention advocates a sound currency to be preserved at all hazards. I agree that the first requisite to a sound and stable currency is a balanced budget. The second requisite, as I view it, is a currency expressed in terms of gold and convertible into gold."

"I recognize however, that the second requisite must not be made effective until and unless it can be done without penalizing our domestic economy and without injury to our producers of agricultural products and other raw materials."

"Governor Londan there serves notice on the country," declared Congressman Englebright, that he left the door open to raise the price of gold, but his statement precludes any possibility of lowering the price of gold."

Republicans on March To Sweep Nev. County

P. M. Henderson of the Republican National Committee headquarters in Chicago will be speaker and guest at a big Republican rally this evening in Serra Hall Grass Valley.

The purpose of the meeting tonight is to launch the National Republican Committee program in Nevada and Sierra counties, particularly to co-ordinate the efforts of state and county organizations and carry all activities through to November 3. Paul Ulrich, of Chicago Park, chairman of the Nevada County Central Committee stated yesterday that he was confident Nevada county would give Landon and Knox a majority over Roosevelt and Garner. Chairman Ulrich declared: "I know scores of men and women, registered as Democrats, who are crying "Enough!" and who will vote for the Republican candidates.

Monday night, October 14, there will be a big dinner of non-partisan at Bret Harte Inn at which it is expected that 100 will be present.

Last Friday night's meeting in the National Hotel, Nevada City was in the nature of an ovation for the Republican candidates. More than forty sat down to dinner and heard Congressman Harry Englebright refute the latest canard, put out by Democratic leaders, respecting Landon's attitude on sound money and gold. The address of Congressman Englebright follows:

The present campaign in which Republicans and in which all of the people of the nation regardless of party affiliations are vitally interested is perhaps the most important and most serious campaign in the history of this country since the Civil War.

Perhaps none of us realize the full extent the issues before the country, but in time to come we undoubtedly all will remember this campaign as one of the great turning points in American history.

Eighty years ago, when the Republican party held its first convention it was organized to maintain the American form of free and representative government, to uphold American traditions and to defend the Constitution and American institutions. It never has departed from those fundamental purposes.

The Republican platform of eighteen hundred and fifty six, declared "that the maintenance of the principle promulgated in the Declaration of Independence and embodied in the Federal Constitution is essential to the preservation of our Republican institutions."

That platform also invited "the affilliation and cooperation of the men of all parties, however differing from us in other respects," but who believed "that the spirit of our institutions as well as the Constitution of our Country guarantees liberty of conscience and equality of rights among citizens."

Today the Republican party takes the same position and extends to all Americans the same invitation in support of its position.

The Republican Party of this State and in the Nation is in the midst of a great campaign, but this is not merely a partisan campaign. The people are weary of too much partisanship. They call for those who believe of proceeding in the American way to stand together and restore America to the American people.

The question of the campaign is quite clearly defined and is, shall the Government of the United States in the words of Abraham Lincoln, continue to be a Government, "of the people, by the people, and for the people," or shall it become a Government of bureaucracy, regimentation and brain trust. The administration now controlling the destinies of this nation is largely a Government from above.

It is largely based upon the principle that the people cannot manage their own affairs and that a government of bureaucracy must manage for them. That proposition after centuries of trial in Europe and its attempted transfer to America was repudiated and overthrown one hundred and sixty years ago by the Declaration of Independence.

The institutions of our government has been turned over to the "Spoils System" of partisanship. The ideals of America have been warped and molded into the spirit and form of philosophies fundamentally destructive of the very principles of freedom under the law. Wasteful expenditures of the taxpayers money have been made and we still have ten million men out of work.

The Republican Party has held its convention and adopted its platform, which is clear, explicit and comprehensive. It recognizes the needs and requirements of the Nation at this time and candidly states what remedies it proposes.

It has selected as its nominee for President of the United States a great and distinguished American. A man wo is a tribute to individual opportunity and individual character. A man who was no more favored by fortune than millions of his fellow citizens. In common with millions he was a member of the armed forces of the United States.

He knows what it means to labor for under burning suns of the Southwest, he lived and worked in the oil fields. He knows the mineral industry, and the difficulties of mining for precious metals deep in the earth. He knows what agriculture means. He has been a successful business man. He has not amassed great wealth, but he has earned his living and earned a reputation. A reputation for knowing how to work, a reputation for keeping his word and a reputation for being far too courageous to be frightened.

He is the Governor of a great state and as such has made his administration one of out-standing success. He can, and will re-establish the sense of confidence in the American busineess man, bring about a permanent rehabilitation of agriculture and industry and restore America to the American people—Alfred Mossman Landon of Kansas. As his running mate the Republican party has selected the friend and fellow soldier of the indominable Theodore Roosevelt, the Honorable Frank Knox of Illinois, a man of outstanding ability and stability of purpose.

Under Governor Landon's banner, will gather all classes of citizens regardless of party label, and bring success to is candidacy at the polls in November.

For some time the question has been asked as to whether or not the

TOWN ON TIP TOE FOR COUNTRY FAIR OPENING

Nevada County's second annual Country Fair opens with vigor and zest tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon in Armory Hall.

Chicago Park and Peardale farmers are giving a marvelous cooperation. Besides supplying a great quantity of decorations for the hall they have also made many individual exhibits. Mrs. Kitty Kimball has visited the farmers in the different communities and they cooperated enthusiastically. Mrs. Kimball is chairman of the decorations.

The horse show featuring cowboys and cowgirls will take place as scheduled at 1:30 o'clock on Spring street. It will be in charge of Carl Tobiassen, Jr. Then the show will move to the hall. The afternoon show goes on with vaudeville, dramatics, readings, high school band and other forms of entertainment.

The evening session begins at 7 o'clock with a big show. A community sing and many other high closs features. The merchants of Nevada City and Grass Valley have given generously for door prizes. The Forest Service is giving 1000 souvenirs. At 8 o'clock in the evening there will open the vaudeville show.

At nine o'clock the big barn dance will be on the boards. Old time dances as well as modern musical swing numbers with a special orchestra will prove a delight to old and young.

The exhibitors include Nevada City Drug Store, U. S. Forest Service, Nevada County Lumber Company, Builders Supply Company, which supplied much of the lumber and in other ways gave valuable assistance. Alpha Stores William M. Rumsey, The P. G. & E. Company and many others will exhibit. The Grass Valley Laundry and Dry Cleaners is sponsoring the public address system furnished by Art Remple of Grass Valley.

Much fine new talent has been developed. The high school chorus, directed by Mrs. Carl Libbey, in the evening will be one of the musical treats. There will be many surprises and interesting exhibits.

The Country Fair will feature jellies, jams, nuts, milk and all things that go to make fair exhibit. Doll and airplane exhibits by school children will be on display.

Miss Lois Shaw, local teacher, is directing the dramatic sketches in the afternoon. The committee feels grateful to all who are helping to make this affair possible, and takes this occasion to thank them.

City Council Refuses License for Gambling

The temporary city hall was crowded to the suffocating point last evening when the question of whether a modified roulette wheel should be given a business license was thoroughly threshed out.

Some weeks ago one Van DeGogh applied for a license to open a new electric roulette wheel game called Hotcha-Flash. It differs from roulette only by having more than the usual numbers and colors. He attempted to convince the city council that his was a game of amusement and not chance, since the latter is contrary to state law. The city attorney has advised the county that the game is illegal.

In the meantime four organizations of women and many business men privately had opposed permitting the illegal game to open. The Woman's Civic Club unanimously adopted a resolution in which they appealed to the city council to refuse a license and to close up the game if it should open.

The Parent Teachers association passed a similar resolution, the Ladies Aid Society and the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary also adopted condemnatory resolutions. These bodies all sent delegates to make vocal protest to the city council last evening. Mrs. Robert Nye, Mrs. Charles Parsons, Mrs. Harley M. Leete, Mrs. Belle Douglass, were heard for the Civic Club, Mrs. A. A. Price who was the representative of the Ladies Aid composed of eighty women voiced a vigorous protest. Several others were given a chance to be heard.

Van Gogh took the floor and seldom gave anyone else a chance to be heard. He protested that the game was running in twenty cities, and that it had proven so popular that none would part with it. He gave the impression that if he wished to withdraw his game from any city where it is established the entire population would implore him to remain.

Mayor Ben Hall declared that the city council had been advised by City Attorney W. E. Wright that the game was illegal and that under that condition there was nothing for the board to consider. He stated that the members of the board had sworn to uphold the laws of the state and of the United States, and that they could not be involved by granting either a business or an amusement license to game which their legal adviser had stated was illegal.

Van Gogh inquired whether if he opened without a license he would be arrested, and the mayor assured him that he would. A considerable number of those who packed the room were much in sympathy with Van Gogh. Some of them pleaded that the latter had spent a lot of money putting his gambling equipment and in re-decorating the ill-fated Nevada City Tavern, which has had, from a gambling and sporting standpoint, such unlucky record.

During the discussion Councilman Frank Davis made a vitrolic attack on the Nevada Theatre, declared that if morality were to be considered, the theatre should be closed because of the misconduct that occurred in the hours between 9 and 11 p. m. in the gallery. He also charged that City Clerk George Calanan was opposing the opening of the gambling house because he feared that it would affect the receipts of the theatre.

Mr. Calanan declared that this matter of the gambling house was quite apart from anything to do with the theatre. If Van Gogh attempted to open his resort on Broad street, he stated that he personally would have him arrested regardless of what the city council did in the matter, and without regard to its effect on the theatre.

Mayor Ben Hall remarked that if Councilman Davies knew of immorality in the theatre he should do his duty as a councilman and swear to a complaint, and see to it that the law was enforced.

The resignation of Frank Wright, water collector, was accepted with regret and the council elected R. L. P. Bigelow to be his successor. Wright has accepted a post as credit manager of a Sacramento wholesale house.

The following bills were ordered paid:

What We'd Like To Hear

The President launching out upon his campaign for re-election. He states they will be political addresses. From this description it may be assumed that they will differ in important respects from their non-political predecessors which have, in the main, been devoted to explaining why Mr. Roosevelt should be re-elected. Such a theme, as anyone can see, is not political.

Since it is as a candidate and not as Chief Executive that he is to appear, it may not be amiss nor presumptuous to offer a few suggestions as to what the public, whose votes he seeks, would like to hear from this distinguished aspirant to the Presidency.

Not in recent years—as the results showed—has there been a more effective series of political addresses than those delivered by Mr. Roosevelt in 1932. The public received them with great enthusiasm; they crowned his candidacy with overwhelming success. Since he is again officially a candidate, since national conditions then and now are in several important essentials parallel and since he will be addressing the same public, Mr. Roosevelt could surely do no better than to discuss, with equal frankness and vigor, the same subjects in the same way as in 1932.

For example, we had a serious relief problem then. We still have it, though Mr. Roosevelt says the situation has been improving. If this is true the voters and taxpayers would be glad to know why the government is spending twice as much for relief as it was at this time last year.

We had an unemployment problem then; we still have it and in almost exactly the same numbers. Under Roosevelt it was to have been solved within six months after the inauguration date; that is, by Labor Day of 1933. It is now almost four years since that undertaking was made. Mr. Roosevelt has spent and allocated approximately $9,000,000,000 to restore employment, and we have as many jobless as ever. Many of those who have to pay the bill would appreciate a candid explanation from the chief spender of what he thinks it was that went wrong.

We had a farm problem, due to shrinking agricultural income and disparity between the prices of agricultural and manufactured products. We still have it, except that on both counts it is somewhat worse. Mr. Roosevelt has given the farmers nearly $2,000,000,000 for not farming and that amount has been added directly to the cost of living of the rest of us. Even with this, the farmers are $3,000,000,000 a year in the red, not counting drought losses. Everyone, farmers included, would be happy to hear just what Mr. Roosevelt considers has been practically accomplished for the relief of agriculture.

We had a fiscal problem, due to a net deficit, after four years of Hoover, or about $1,800,000,000. We still have it, except that the deficit, after three and a half years of Roosevelt, is about $14,000,000,000. Think what wonderful political effects Mr. Roosevelt could have got from such a figure had it existed under his predecessor! It is not too late yet; he is again a candidate and there is the deficit! How we would like to hear again from the same lips the thunderous denunciation of "reckless government spending," of "threatened national bankruptcy" and so on! How welcome would be another pledge from this same candidate that "rigid government economy shall be forced by a stern and unremitting policy of living within our means!" It might elect him again.

We had a bureaucracy problem; we still have it—multiplied by two. Would not another excoriation of political government by commissions make votes for Roosevelt again?

$2,500,000 of Taxpayers' Money 'Sunk' in Creek

EAST ST. LOUIS, ILL.—"Vote Republican" says a sign forty feet long which spans the city-owned viaduct over Old Cahokia creek here. "Cahokia creek," the sign explains, "is still here—$2,500,000 taxpayers' money is gone." That is the amount the PWA spent to divert the channel of the stream, which is an open sewer. Another sign on the viaduct says, "Smell it."

Hamilton Calls Roosevelt Hand on Communism

NEW YORK.—"President Roosevelt, in his first admittedly political speech, at Syracuse, immediately went on the defensive in an attempt to unlink his administration from Communism," John Hamilton, Republican National chairman, charged here.

"So, again I ask the question I have asked before," said Mr. Hamilton. "How long, Mr. Roosevelt, do you intend to affront the voters of America by retaining as one of your Presidential electors on the Democratic ballot in New York state a man who rendered financial aid to Communists in Spain so that they might continue to horrify the civilized world with their murders of clergymen and their pillaging of churches?

"The Presidential elector I refer to, Mr. Roosevelt, is Mr. David Dubinsky, a former member of the Socialist Party. Mr. Dubinsky sent $5,000 to Spanish Communists and boasted of raising $78,000 more.

"How much longer do you need? Why are you delaying?"

No Future in New Deal, Landon Warning to Youth

TOPEKA, KAS. — "The present administration apparently believes that there is no future for this country," Gov. Alf M. Landon told the Young Republicans' national conference here. "It has accepted the idea that we have reached our peak—that ahead of us is a large standing army of unemployed; that, in consequence, the government must play a greater and greater part in managing the details of our daily lives instead of confining itself to the expanding field of regulation in the public interest.

"The Republican party, on the other hand, utterly rejects this philosophy. It believes that America still is on the upgrade, that we can eliminate unemployment, that the government should tighten the rules governing business, but should not attempt to manage business; that, in a word, America will once again be a nation where youth can be confident of its future," Gov. Lar don declared.

Landon and Roosevelt agree! They agree eleven million workers must be put back on the job. The Roosevelt way: Harass business. preach class hatred. Threaten new taxes. The Landon way: "We must be freed from incessant governmental intimidation and hostility and crippling taxation."

WHEAT FROM NEBRASKA

A sample of wheat from Wilcox, Nebraska, was brought to Nevada City by Mrs. R. C. Whitaker upon her return from a visit in her old home town. Her son, C. Whitaker, clerk at Harris' Drug Store, presented the bottle of grain to George Carter who gave it to County Horticultural Commissioner L. G. Lageson.

Due to hot south winds that come up from the Texas panhandle the grain, in the milk stage, was dried up, over a wide area in a few days. The bottle of grain is on display in the Nugget office window.

REPUBLICANS ON MARCH TO SWEEP NEV. COUNTY

outcome of the presidential election of Governor Landon will bring about the lowering of the price of gold below $35 an ounce. The answer is absolutely "No." Perhaps we wonder if the price of gold will be lowered because we have only been accustomed to the price of $35 an ounce for a comparatively short time.

When gold was at $20.67 per ounce, I doubt if any one of us ever thought of it being lowered below that value. This was because it had sold at $20.67 for such a long period and because we knew at that price it was the basis of the credit structure of the world. The entire credit structure of the civilized world is now based upon $35 an ounce gold and to lower the price would bring about financial turmoil and even bankruptcy.

The study of the history of gold for hundreds of years back shows that it has steadily advanced in price. Gold at the present value of $35 is not a fictitious or legislative value but a commodity price value with the possibility of increasing in dollars per ounce. Governor Landon on this matter is absolutely clear.

Permit me to read to you a telegram sent by him to the Republican Convention, in which he states his position on monetary and currency matters. This telegram was sent prior to his nomination and he desired to be placed upon record in this and other subjects prior to his name being placed before the convention. The telegram with reference to this and other subjects, reads as follows:

"To the Delegates of the Republican National Convention:

"My name is to be presented for your consideration as a candidate for the nomination for President of the United States."

"The platform recommended by your Committee on resolutions and adopted by the convention has been communicated to me."

"I note that according to the terms of that platform the acceptance of the nomination tended by this convention carries with it as a matter of private honor and public faith, an understanding by each candidate to be true to the principles and program herein set forth."

"If nominated, I unqualifidely accept the word and spirit of that undertaking."

"However, with that candor which you and the country are entitled to expect of me. I feel compelled before you proceed with the consideration of my name to submit my interpretation of certain planks in the platform so that you may be advised as to my views. I could not in conscience do otherwise."

"The convention advocates a sound currency to be preserved at all hazards. I agree that the first requisite to a sound and stable currency is a balanced budget. The second requisite, as I view it, is a currency erpressed in terms of gold and convertible into gold."

"I recognize however, that the second requisite must not be made effective until and unless it can be done without penalizing our domestic economy and without injury to our producers of agricultural products and other raw materials."

In other words, Governor Landon served notice upon the country that he left the door open to raise the price of gold, and his statement precludes any possibility of lowering the price of gold. The rumor that has been in existence that the outcome of the election might bring about a reduction in the price of gold is without either foundation or fact and as far as Governor Landon is concerned, his position is clear and explicit, as the foregoing telegram to the Republican Convention shows.

JERRY-BUILDING MADE DIFFICULT

To avoid the usual amount of jerry-building which accompanies each building boom, prospective home owners are being advised to learn as much about construction as possible. While they are increasing their knowledge of construction, home owners might well be warned to learn more of insulation to avoid the disappointment of jerr-building insulation jobs.

At least one large manufacturer of insulating materials—The Celotex Corporation—realizes the need for more careful insulation methods. This organization has just announced a plan to guarantee their material for the life of the building.

Regarding this guaranteee, Bror G. Dahlberg, President, said: "During the 15 years we have been manufacturing structural insulating materials we have grown to be the largest in the world. As such we are glad to be able to assure prospective builders and those who plan to improve or remodel their homes that Celotex will fulfill the claims we make for it. We are backing this up with a guarantee in writing. This guarantee covers 10 vital points, among which are: the guarantee to provide structural strength, a guarantee to provide structural strength, a guarantee to give lasting fuel economy, and a guarantee against destruction by termites."

Mr. Dahlberg said that the guarantee would be provided by the Corporation through all dealers who handle Celotex. These dealers are in a position to give complete information on insulation problems.

Hidden Taxes

"If the major portion of the government's income is obtained from indirect and hidden taxes—taxes upon such things as food, clothing, gasoline and cigarettes—then the main burden falls upon those of small income and the cost of government is hidden. In this case, it is the wage earner, the salaried worker, the farmer, and the small business man, who have to pay most of the bill."—Alf. M. Landon at Buffalo, N. Y., August 26, 1936.

HOW ABOUT THAT OLD RADIO?

Your present set is probably still percolating, but if it is several years old you're going to miss a lot of entertainment.

Better come in and see the smart new 1937 GRUNOW radios. They're just about human, and, of course, the big news is the TELEDIAL. It's like dialing a phone, only easier . . . a single flip and you're tuned in perfectly.

Sets with TELEDIAL were in the two-hundred dollar class, but Grunow has figured the 12-tube model down to around a hundred dollars. Our special credit plan and easy payments make ownership practically painless.

Sincerely,

Bill Rumsey

ROAD FOREMAN MURDERS WIFE FOR NAGGING

Shortly before 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon Lawrence J. Johnson, road construction foreman residing at Rough and Ready called up Sheriff Tobiassen and said: "Come and get me. I have murdered my wife. Bring the coroner."

When the sheriff arrived at the little cabin in the rear of the Rough and Ready hotel, he found Mrs. Johnson lying on the floor with a bullet wound through her temple, and a great bruise where she had struck the stove in falling. Johnson, after the fatal shot had not re-entered his cabin but paced up and down the yard awaiting the sheriff.

He told his story to District Attorney Stoll without apparent hesitation. He had married his wife on June 6, this year. The couple had gone to Reno in pouring rain and returned during the same storm. "And it has been raining ever since," Johnson stated. He declared that since married his wife had continually nagged him.

Johnson and his wife had been drinking heavily during the afternoon and since their marriage and been consuming a good deal of liquor. On returning from trip to Grass Valley they began quarreling. According to Johnson his wife called him several vile names. In a sudden fit of anger, Johnson seized his 32 calibre revolver and shot her through the temple. He then went to the hotel and phoned the sheriff. When the sheriff arrived Johnson objected to wearing handcuffs. "In forty three years I have never have worn those things," he said. The sheriff replied as he snapped them one: "You never murdered your wife before, did you?"

Coroner Jefford removed the body to his undertaking establishment. The dead woman is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Lamb of the Shebley apartments in Grass Valley, and Mrs. Annie Darin. She was a native of Missouri.

Johnson was foreman of a road construction crew of the state highway department, employed on the new reconstruction project below Smartsville. He had a good reputation as a workman and received a good salary. He is 43 years old and a native of Minnesota. His wife was thirty-six.

CHAS. L. WALTHER CALLED BY DEATH

After Mr. Alvin H. Walther of Nevada City had left for Pittsburgh in the hopes of seeing his father, Charles L. Walther, before he passed away, Mr. Arthur W. Hoge received a telegram to the effect that he had passed away Wednesday noon.

Quite a while ago, Mr. Wauther had a bad fall and which he, at that time, thought was only a bad shake up and a severe bruise of his foot, but later it was found out that the big toe had been broken and an infection had set in and he was then taken to the hospital by his daughter and had the toe removed and after this was done, he seemed to improve up until last Saturday when he took a sudden chill and a change for the worst and at which time he was again placed in the hospital, but too weak for the operation. As a result of further infection, he was, on the account of his age, unable to overcome the relapse and passed away Wednesday noon before his son, Alvin, was able to reach him.

Mr. Walther was quite well known in Nevada City and had a very large circle of friends, because he had a very charming personality and an exceptionally cheerful disposition, and his loss is deeply felt by his many friends and especially by the Hoge family with whom he was so closely associated in their operations.

Mr. Walther was chairman of the board of directors of the Hoge Development Company and also of the Great Northern Gold Mines, Inc., which is a subsidiary of the Hoge Development Company, and he, together with Mr. Hoge, were not only the prime movers, but the two largest investors in these enterprises. A little over two years ago at the time when Mr. Hoge was ill, he was here for a period of some six months and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hoge and at which time, he spent many happy hours with his friends at the Elks Lodge of which he had been a life member.

Mr. Walther was by profession a druggist and was the originator of the chain drug store and at one time had the largest chain of drug stores anywhere in the United States. He owned and controlled fifty seven drug stores in Pittsburgh. Later on, after he got out of the drug store business, he owned and operated the largest and best hotel in Aliquippa, Pennsylvania and which was his home for a great many years.

A few years ago, he decided to sell out his supposedly fire proof hotel and came to California to make his home and the night before the transfer was to take place, the hotel was burned. On the account of it being supposedly fire proof, he only carried a small amount of insurance and his loss was over $150,000. This loss severely crippled him and which together with other matters beyond his control and which a great many went through the period of the depression, was indeed a very severe blow to this grand old man, because he had looked forward to coming to California to make his home and to assist in doing his part towards making the mining operations the success that he always believed possible.

Mr. Walther was a man, who was generous to a fault. In his flush days he was more than generous to his friends as well as his family. Many of his friends forgot all about this in the days of his adversity, which is so often the case.

However, those who knew him best know that he lived a well rounded out life with a host of real friends and a very devoted family.

He is survived by his sons, Alvin H. Walther of Nevada City, California; Raymond L. Walther of Aliquippa, Pennsylvania; a daughter, Adele H. Walther, of Aliquippa, and also a brother Ernest Walther, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

SUICIDE VICTIM HAS A CHANCE OF RECOVERY

Last reports on the condition of Mrs. Hannah Davenport, of the Stockton Hill mine section, who was taken to the Nevada County, county hospital, Wednesday afternoon, after she attempted suicide, are that she slept some during the day She did not sleep the night before she would commit suicide if her husband made good his threat of leaving her. He has been gone about a week.

Dr. A. H. Tickell removed the bullet from her back. It entered near the left breast and followed a rib half way around her body in its course. No bones were broken and there were no injuries to the plural cavity. Dr. Tickell states she has a 50-50 chance for recovery.

It is stated Mrs. Davenport said though she was resting fairly easy. Mrs. Davenport asked for her husband several times inquiring whether he had been founl or had been heard from. Sheriff Carl J. Tobiassen and assistants are looking for the man but have no trace of him so far.

Harold Plant, mining engineer, visited the Alpha mine, of which he is the owner, this week.

Mrs. David Bleakley, former resident of this city, underwent an operation of serious character in a Berkeley hospital last week. Mrs. Bleakley and her daughter, Harriett, a graduate of the University of California, now reside in Berekeley.

Mrs. C. B. Anderson, formerly of this city, is recovering from a capital operation in the Highland Hospital at Auburn. Dr. Gordon Mackey was the surgeon who treated her. C. B. Anderson was formerly a partner in the Nevada City Nugget.

Landon's record: Elected in 1932 on his promise to reduce bonded indebtedness totaling $151,000,000. Secured passage of law providing jail sentence for any Kansas official issuing warrant on treasury when required funds not on hand. Today Kansas has reduced its indebtedness by $22,000,000 despite hard times.

McCARL SAYS U. S. DEBT NOW CREDIT MENACE

John R. McCarl, for fifteen years Controller General of the United States, has retired because of the expiration of his term of office. The controller's duty is to judge all expenditures of the government as to their legality.

Mr. McCarl, has made a public statement as to the condition of the United States so fas as it is concerned with government finances. He states that his actions in the past have been, and his attitude now is not effected by personal or political bias.

Here are Mr. McCarl's conclusions:

The public debt is menacingly high, over $34,000,000,000 and it will be $35,000,000,000 before anything can be done about it. At this figure the debt is a menace to U. S. credit and the menace increases as shown as income consistently falls below government spending.

To meet deficits the government forces banks to relinquish cash for bonds. The debt is now all it should be, with safety.

Interest on the public debt now amounts to over $900,000,000 a year. Not very long ago the average man was shocked when congress fix- of the entire government expense at one billion.

The present deplorable condition is in a large measure due to waste, extravagance and inefficiency. These things must be eliminated and the debt reduced, otherwise new emergencies will arise and disaster and calamity will follow.

Credit inflation is now here and printing press inflation is a threat. The consumer economizes because taxes are high. The government economizes because the debt is too high.

AGRICULTURAL MAGAZINE WILL BACK LANDON

The Successful Farmer, an agricultural magazine, published in Des Moines, Iowa and founded by E. T. Meredith, Secretary of Agriculture in Wilson's cabinet, cannot stand for the Roosevelt administration and is supporting Landon. It carries an article in a late edition on "Invisible Taxes."

A direct tax was the cause of the Boston Tea Party, says the article. To avoid current parties of that kind the present administration adopts the hidden tax, so as to pick the goose with the minimum of squawking. The hidden tax is the tax collected at the source from the industrialist, the manufacturer, the jobber, the retailer who must pass them on to the consumer or go out of business. Because of these taxes a $3.50 pair of shoes costs the buyer $5; 5½ cent gasoline costs 18 cents —a 20 cent pound of bacon costs 32 cents; a 23 cents pound of ham costs 32 cents and so on. These taxes are imposed to run the government and are due, in a large measure, to extravagances waste and inefficiency which, The Successful Farmer believes, would be eliminated under Landon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mohr spent last week end in Berkeley visiting their daughter, Miss Marian Mohr, student at the university, and attended the ball game between U. C.-St. Mary's.

Clothes Are High

Come To The Fair

A wise owl sat in a tall pine tree
And said to his whoo whoo wife, said he,
"My dear, it would really be a pity,
If we failed to fly to Nevada City;"
Said his whoo whoo wife to him, said she,
"Now what's up there for a bird to see?"
"Why, the Country Fair," said he.

A squirrel lived in a live oak tree
And he said to his squirrel friend, said he,
"Your new fall coat is prime and pretty,
I'll take you to town—to Nevada City;"
And his squirrel friend to him, said she,
"What's over there for a squirrel to see?"
"Why, the Country Fair," said he.

A bold witch rode through the midnight sky,
And called to a witchlet flying by,
"If you are wise as you are witty,
You'll go with me to Nevada City;
Then the witchlet said to her, said he,
Now what's down there for a witch to see?"
"Why, the Country Fair," said she.

So the big wise owls and the squirrels in grey
With the witch and the witchlet came this way;
And they all agreed it would be a pity
To miss the fair in Nevada City;
"There is much for you humans to hear and see—
And—learn, at the Country Fair.

A. MERRIAM CONNER.

Paid in Cash

To balance the Kansas budget every state employee from governor down accepted a pay reduction. This included school teachers, but they received their salaries when due, and in cash. They thoroughly approve of the Landon system. In the process no child in Kansas was deprived of school opportunities.

Two Extremes

While the Roosevelt administration was spending two dollars for each dollar of revenue received, and creating a deficit of more than $14,000,000,000, Gov. Alf M. Landon was holding down government expenses in Kansas and seeing to it that the state did not spend more than its revenue.

Heritage of Debts

"We must remember that every time the government spends a dollar, that dollar will have to be paid by us or we must pass the debt on to be paid by our children. No parents like to leave their children a heritage of debts and mortgages.

Meat Low, Taxes High

On each pound of bacon you buy there is a New Deal tax of eleven and two-third cents, exclusive of state sales taxes.

Cotton Exports Down

Exports of American cotton the first three years of the New Deal decreased 33 per cent.

GOOD SERVICE COSTS NO MORE
A modern establishment—a trained, intelligent and courteous personnel—distinctive motor equipment and other evidences of progress and prosperity are NOT an indication that funeral service charges will be high. LOOK AT SPAIN, VOTE LIKE MAINE: G. O. P. SLOGAN

"In thanking those who supported me for chairman of the Republican State Central Committee at last Saturday's meeting in Sacramento, I now ask that they join with me in pledging whole-hearted cooperation to the splendid man, Justus Craemer, who has been made the Chairman by a majority of that committee."

Such was the telegram sent yesterday to Richard W. Barrett, the Northern California Republican Campaign Manager, by Edward S. Shattuck, whose withdrawal from the recent election made Craemer's election unanimous.

Predicting a united Republican party in California working shoulder to shoulder for the Landon and Knox ticket and for the Republican candidates for congress and the state senate and assembly, Shattuck informed Barrett he had resumed active participation in the Southern California drive.

"We may be the minority party in registration," Shattuck's telegram read, "but we are the majority party in enthusiasm, spirit and determination. All Republicans in California are determined that the present administration must be defeated—'Look at Spain and vote like Maine,' is our slogan."

Declaring Shattuck who is president of the California Republican Assembly, a state wide group of the younger progressive Republicans, had struck a high note of harmony, Barrett wired the Southern California thanks for the heartening telegrams.

Dear Mr. Congressman

(By CLAYTON RAND)

Please, Mr. Congressman, can't you stop Uncle Sam from sending this country editor so much mail?

It's gotten to where I'm getting more printed matter from the government than from my creditors, customers, exchanges and the mail-order houses put together.

For a time I filled out all the foolish forms that came and carried a frank, but this deluge of printed thunder has reached a point now that I haven't the time even to open it—I went off fishing for a few days and when I got back I couldn't find my desk.

There is little demand for scrap paper any more in the country now, so can't you just have all these government goings-on printed in the Congressional Record instead, and then not send it to me. My junk man won't take it. Please, Mr. Congressman, do something!

GRAMMAR SCHOOL HOLDS PICNIC IN PIONEERS PARK

The Washington grammar school Dramatic Club held its first social meeting of the season Wednesday evening it being in the nature of a weenie roast in Pioneer park. The weenies were roasted in the big open air fire place. The club holds one social meeting each month. Miss Lois Shaw, teacher, and in charge of the club, reports a membership of over 30 students and lots of pep this year.

At present the club is studying fundamental work, and no rehearsals. The Dramatic Club will have a 15 minute period on the Country Fair program which will be a series of short selections, several being original ones by the children.

Miss Shaw stated some time in October Jane Bennetts, Levon Gates and Betty Smith, winners of a contest the club held last spring, will be her guests in San Francisco and attend a legitimate play.

Relief Obligation

Gov. Landon's philosophy is that relief to the unemployed is not a privilege or a vested right, or charity. He told the Kansas legislature that it is a common obligation created by the rapidity and complexity of economic growth.

OVER 3,000 PEOPLE TO BE ENTERTAINED !

That's a job—and yet it is done, easily, pleasantly and comfortably by the theatres in Grass Valley and Nevada City. With two showings nightly of Hollywood's selected recent film releases, these modern play houses are capable of accomodating a throng, which, in single fine, would extend for almost two miles!

Your locally owned theatres know no limit in bringing you the best in film entertainment. Always in close contact with Hollywood they are able to give you the outstanding stellar successes while echoes of the popularity of these same screen hits still vibrate from city theatres.

Grass Valley and Nevada City may also well be proud of entertainment possibilities, not directly professional. Schools, churches, literary, dramatic and civic groups do more than their share toward creating happy hours and building up that camaraderies that creates home-town loyalty and friendliness of neighbors.

More and more people have learned that "home is the best after all" when it comes to choosing the recreations to which their hours of work entitles them. It is well to remember—should time hang a bit heavily—that there is always a good show, or a musical program, or a sport event, or a half dozen other attractions, to suit your particular mood.

PEDESTRIANS HIT IN 1935, TOTAL 10,000 IN CALIF.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 8.—Nearly 10,000 collisions involving pedestrians and motor vehicles took place in 1935, according to figures just released by Ray Ingels, Director of the State Department of Motor Vehicles.

A large number of these occurred at intersections, Ingels said, and pointed out that carelessness of pedestrians in crossing intersections was largely responsible.

"Whether we drive or not we are all pedestrians at times," the director pointed out, "and it is up to us to be careful at all times, but especially now, as we are entering the fall season when our records show that those on foot and those who drive are more prone to get into smash-ups than at any other season. "For the past seven years," he continued, "December has shown a higher rate of automobile pedestrian accidents than any other month."

Ingels said that out of 9947 accidents of this type, 4250 occurred at intersections, while 2424 took place between intersections.

The law provides, he said, that persons using the highway should walk along the left hand edge, so as to face on-coming traffic. A long period of time has demonstrated the value of this regulation, but failure of pedestrians to observe this rule accounted for 526 accidents.

One of the main factors in pedestrian fatalities he attributes to walking out from behind parked cars; this caused 444 accidents. Getting off street cars caused 354; children playing in the streets, 265; parking on the roadway to repair cars, 152; and 90 persons were struck while standing in safety zones.

THIS CHAP DOES NOT APPROVE OF THE NEW DEAL

A mid-west newspaper recently offered a prize for the best arguments presented against the New Deal in not over 500 words. The following contribution took down the highest award because of its sound and logical reasoning. It is here reproduced.

WHY I'M AGAINST THE NEW DEAL

I am against the New Deal because of:

John Lewis.
Impractical bushwhacking.

And last, but by no means least, the ubiquitous MRS. ROOSEVELT.

Or have I mentioned her before?

The record shows that in three and a half years under President Roosevelt more than sixty new commissions, bureaus and functions have been added to the Federal government—250,000 persons added to the payroll. In 1932 Roosevelt said he would "reduce expeneditures of existing departments—by abolishing many bureaus."

YELLOWJACKETS ARE OUT TO WIN

The football squad has been practicing regularly even though they have no game Saturday. The team was to play the Grant Union eleven for the championship Saturday but the game was postponed a week. The Grant team beat Auburn 13-0 while Nevada won 18-7. These two scores indicate an even match.

The team has been handicapped by the loss of Matt Burgan the backfield spark plug but hope to have him back soon. Regardless of his loss the boys can win if they have the will.

NO NEWSPAPER NEXT WEEK!

If all the newspapers quit tomorrow . . . think of the things you wouldn't know

Where is Babe Ruth now? Who was elected supervisor? How did that automobile crash happen? What is the price of eggs? Why are taxes so high? The answer to questions like these is today's news.

But without newspapers you could not get the answers. You could be sure of few things. For now alert reporters ferret out the truth; fearless editors print facts, not rumors. Every news story is rechecked for accuracy, for important details, for the news behind the bare facts. You may well believe everything you read in your paper.

This newspaper is yours. It was edited especially for you. This, being Newspaper Week, is a good time to find out more about how this newspaper is made and why life would be pretty dull without it.

MANYDEMOCRATS MARCHING UNDER LANDON BANNER

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—Registered Democrats are joining the Republican ranks in California in such large numbers that the Republican National Committee has become convinced that this state will give Landon and Knox a victorious plurality and may again become the deciding state in the general election November 3.

This announcement was made by S. F. B. Morse, chairman, Northern California Republican campaign committee, yesterday, upon the receipt of advices from Jacob D. Allen, director, orfianization department, National Committee.

Allen declared that the growth of Republican sentiment in California has become so impressive that here after California will take precedence over every state in the Union in its demands for Republican literature. Large shipments of campaign literature, it was added, are being forwarded to the Northern and Southern California campaign headquarters. It will be ready within a week for distribution throughout the state.

Encouraged by reports of increasing Republican strength, Justus Craemer, Orange, newly elected chairman, and Lawrence D. Cobb, Los Angeles, secretary Republican State Central Committee yesterday, undertook a personal tour of Northern California counties, to confer with county and district leaders on an intensive drive for Landon and Knox. Especially impressive, they said, is the rapid organization of precincts. These local committees are prepared to carry the message of Republicanism to the residence of every voter before election day.

Craemer declared himself to be surprised and very hopefully impressed by the steady swing of Southern California Democrats into the Republican column. Many of the precinct groups working for Landon and Knox in Los Angeles, he said, are composed largely of Democrats.

Indications that Alfred E. Smith's radio address from New York, Friday, is cutting heavy inroads into the Democratic ranks of California, were contained yesterday in initial tallies taken by Richard W. Barrett, Northern California Campaign Director. One report showed six janitors in a large San Francisco building had been convinced by Al Smith and they are registered as Democrats they intend to vote for Landon.

GRAND OPENING FOR STANDARD STATION OCT. 10

Emphasizing the transition from early California days to the present time, Standard Stations, Inc., has opened their newest unit on the site occupied for many years by the Lane Livery Stable. It is bounded east and west by Broad and Main street and on the south by Deer Creek. The grand opening will take place tomorrow, Saturday morning.

The original owner of the site, James Graham, built his stable there in the early 50s'. It was a pretentious building for those days and he occupied it until the nineties when it was taken over by the late Henry Lane, who operated the stable for about 20 years. It was destroyed in September, 1922, in the last big fire in Nevada City's history.

As a natural adjunct to the livery business the site was also occupied by a blacksmith shop, wagon shop, as well as two saloons and a Chinese grocery store.

After the big fire that destroyed nearly the entire block, the lot remained vacant, a repository for trash, storage of various kinds, of materials, overgrown with weeds, and an eyesore to the citizens in general.

The transition to the home of a beautiful modern service station complete in every detail, for rendering one-stop Standard service to motorists of Nevada City, is one that is pleasing to its citizens.

The station was constructed with materials furnished by Builders' Supply House, Nevada City, mill work; Nevada County Lumber Co., lumber; Thomas F. Maguire, rock and sand; Alpha Stores, plumbing pipeing; Diamond Matc Co., cement.

It will be managed by L. W. Miller who has been at the Standard Stations, Inc., at Reno for the past several years. He will be assisted by Manning Miller of Grass Valley and Bert Steele, also of Grass Valley, who is planning to make his home here.

Manning Miller is a native of Nevada City, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Miller of Grass Valley, where he has spent the greater portion of his life. He is a graduate of the University of California.

Mr. Steele has been in Grass Valley for several years and has many friends there, and will rapidly make new ones in this city which he plans to make his home.

Standard Stations, Inc., which are scattered all over the western country is a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Co. for the rtailing of its products.

MRS. HENRY SCHROEDER VISITS IN NEVADA CITY

Mrs. Henry Schroeder, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Fred Miller and Mr. Miller in Grass Valley about a year, visited in Nevada City Wednesday afternoon. She called on her sister, Mrs. Florence Evans, and several others among them being her doctor, W. W. Reed. After viewing the street improvements in front of her home on Prospect street she enjoyed a trip about Nevada City viewing the new city hall, grammar school, addition to the court house and several other projects under construction. Mrs. Schroeder's late husband, Henry Schroeder, was assessor of this county for many years, and was beloved by all.

Major Frank Chapman has completed a new double garage and workshop at his home in Nevada City. The space formerly used as a garage, has been made into an apartment.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Domingo Casci have purchased a new, modern house on the Bettcher tract of land near the county hospital, and have moved from the ranch in Willow Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conner spent the last week end at their home near North San Juan. They have made several improvements, adding two rooms. Their furniture which has been in storage has been moved to the San Juan home.

Fred Sauvee, of the Union Ice Company this city, is able to be about again after being laid up for several days with an attack of rheumatism, brought on by an injury to his knee when 100 pounds of ice fell on it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Martz returned Tuesday from a visit of a few days with their daughter, Miss Winifred Martz, at Janesville.

Mrs. William Maguire had as recent guests, Mrs. Mervin Grizzle and Mrs. Jack Smith of Liberty Hill district, east of Nevada City. The ladies came out when forest fires threatened their section and spent several days visiting Mrs. Maguire.

The chorus classes under Mrs. Marian Libbey and the band under L. E. Sweeney will perform Saturday night.

Both these departments showed up well last year and rank top-notch this year with a very promising year ahead of them.

Both Mrs. Libbey and Mr. Sweeney are to be complimented on their efficiency in training the students who turned up knowing little or nothing about music.

Champion Circle Enjoys Meeting

Champion Circle Thimble Club held a most delightful meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Esther Tremaine. Thirty members were present to enjoy several hours of cards after the short business session. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Teresa McCloud, first, Mrs. John Filler, second and Mrs. Annie Scheemer, third. Mrs. Mildred Tobiassen won the door prize. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

The club will hold a public card party Thursday December third. A quilt and groceries will be given as door prizes.

Do you know: That when you buy a 10 cent bottle of milk you pay 52 taxes on it amounting to 1 cent. And that there are 38 taxes on a piece of meat for which you pay 35 cents. Five cents of the purchase price goes for taxes. The tax on an $5 dress is$1.57.

Twenty four years ago every man's share in public expenditures amounted to $30 annually. Today his share is $125. Increased public debt means increased taxes. Increased taxes bring a lower standard of living.
